Veterans' Families United Foundation

In Partnership with Soldier's Heart

FALL FAMILY RETREAT 2013

To all sisters, mothers, daughters and wives; husbands, brothers, fathers and sons of all generations of war veterans,

VFU welcomes you to attend a weekend away to better understand your loved one's trauma, and be understood. Through community, you will be comforted, supported and allowed a voice, developing deep connections with others who are in very similar situations. If you feel led to see and feel unconditional compassion for those affected by war in a place of healing, please contact clarkcounsel@cox.net for more information and for the registration form.
